The Moomba Masters Water Ski Tournament is run under the guidelines of the Current IWWF tournament rules including any changes made by the World Technical Council, the IWWF By-laws, the World Anti-Doping Code and these Moomba Tournament Rules.

Moomba Masters rules (e.g. MM1.01) replace the corresponding IWWF Rules (e.g. 1.01)

In IWWF rules wherever particular words appear they are to be replaced as follows:

IWWF RULE WORDS		MOOMBA MASTERS RULE WORDS
Tournament Council	-	VWSA
Confederation of AAO Tournament Council	-	Oceania Technical Chairman
Affiliated Association	-	Nil
Country/State	-	Skier
Team Representative	-	Skier's Representative
Team Captain	-	Skier
Team	-	Skier

Code of conduct

All participants whether they are competing, officials, supporters or volunteers are required to set a minimum standard of conduct, whether held under the auspices of a V.W.S.A event or a sanction constituent body (W.W.A.- AW&WF –IWWF)

For the purpose of dealing with any disciplinary proceedings the VWSA shall use their best endeavours to carry out investigations as it considers necessary

RULE 1 GENERAL

MM 1.01. Applicability of the Rules

As per 1.01 except that these rules apply to the Moomba Masters Tournament.

MM 1.02. Tournament Dates

The Moomba Masters shall be held every year.

MM 1.04. Interpretation of the Rules

As per rule 1.04, except in relation to MM rules, for which questions of interpretation should be directed to the Moomba Masters Committee Technical Chairman.

MM 1.08 Identifying Bibs

Delete and replace with:

Each athlete will receive a bib in the competitor bag prior to competing. It is compulsory that athletes wear this supplied bib with the sponsors brand facing outwards at all times whilst competing, whilst on the pick up boat and during interviews immediately before and after competing. Bibs are to be worn over slings in jump events. Athletes removing bibs for any of the aforementioned occasions will be subject to disciplinary action as described in rule MM 1.10. The Moomba Masters relies solely upon sponsors to finance the event, and athletes not abiding completely with the rules in relation to wearing of bibs put these sponsorships into jeopardy, and therefore put the entire event at risk.

MM 1.08 (2) Athlete Attire

The Moomba Masters Organising Committee have the right to control or prohibit advertising material used, worn, or displayed by an athlete at the site during the tournament, and in publicity associated with the tournament.

During all off water television appearances (interviews / presentations), athletes may only wear attire (including but not limited to hats, helmets, t-shirts, polo shirts, sweaters) branded by official sponsors of the tournament. Athletes may hold a ski during off water television appearances with personal sponsors featured, so long as those personal sponsors do not directly conflict with Moomba Masters Event Sponsors, or unless the specific sponsor has an agreement with the Moomba Masters to allow their sponsored athletes to display their logo. Athletes will be provided with a list of Moomba Masters Event Sponsors at the Skier Briefing Session.

MM 1.08 (3) Images

The Moomba Masters Organising Committee and the City of Melbourne have the exclusive right to take photographs, motion pictures and television images of Moomba Masters athletes and have the right to unrestricted use of these images in all kinds of media for the purpose of promoting the Moomba Masters, before, during and after the event.

MM 1.10 Unsportsmanlike Conduct

Replace Rule 1.10 with the following paragraphs:

All athletes and their representatives and officials shall behave in an exemplary manner at all times before, during and after The Moomba Masters. Any Athlete (or his/her representative) or official whose conduct is deemed unsportsmanlike, or who may cause discredit to the Moomba Masters, VWSA, VWSF, AWWF, IWWF, their home country federation or the City of Melbourne, either on or off the tournament site, before, during or after the tournament may be fined and/or disqualified from all or part of the tournament including completed events as determined by the Chief Judge and by a two thirds majority vote of the appointed judges. Additionally the individual may also be subject to a fine determined by the IWWF Executive Board or the Moomba Masters appointed committee. The affected individual will be given an opportunity to present their case before a disqualification decision is made.

Unsportsmanlike conduct includes, but is not limited to : wearing of non-tournament sponsor attire during interviews and presentations, not wearing competition bib whilst competing, on the pick-up boat or for dock interviews, refusing interviews, refusing to wear tournament sponsor attire during interviews and presentations, use of offensive language in public, public tantrums, not skiing to fullest potential, failure to attend required presentations, consumption of alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs prior to competing, refusing to take a drug test if required by ASDA or WADA Officials, competing under false pretenses, concealing significant injuries or health problems.

A skier disqualified in this manner would forfeit any and all prize money won for the tournament. This paragraph shall not be construed to deny or limit any individual's legal rights. All fines shall be paid to VWSA or taken directly from the athlete's prize money before final payment. Failure to do so will result in exclusion from future Moomba Masters Events until the fine is paid.

Disciplinary Procedure / Fine Schedule

- 1) Unsportsmanlike conduct – not less than $500 per incident and / or disqualification
